January 2006 Holidays include upto £100 per couple on board spend.

Looking for a bit more from your holiday? How about a great deal and FREE spending money with Ocean Village in the Caribbean January 2006.

Plus with Ocean Village you'll get a whole load of different holidays rolled in to one. A beach getaway, an adventure break, a spa retreat and yes, a cruise holiday – but a cruise like no other. It's as action-packed or laid-back as you like, and as dressed down as you choose to make it. You won't find any formal dress codes, set dining times or fixed seating plans on board.

And with up to £100 of free on board spend per couple there's no excuse to miss out on some great action ashore like kayaking in St Maarten or quad biking in St Kitts. Or maybe head for the Karma Spa for a muscle melting massage or some relaxing reflexology.
